Jeff's work currently is anchored around the attempt to simplify the complex natural surroundings that our landscape provides. I love how the light and shadows interplay across the shapes, values and intricacies that I see. Like many artists I create much of my reference work through my photographic journeys.

I love the immediacy that soft pastel brings to my work while simultaneously the patience and process of Oil painting. I am a Seattle native who has lived in Florida, Southern California, Oregon and Alabama. This diversity of experience is displayed throughout my work.
