

Artist Statement: Maggie Van Nortwick

I started painting at such a young age that I cannot remember what age it was, and began to show interest in photography in about the fifth grade. Although I also love many forms of art, drawing, painting and photography are easily my preferred mediums. My interests in terms of photography lie primarily in travel photography, while in painting my interests lie primarily in the painting of animals, people, and landscapes.